Volume IX of the Hawaiian Reports has been issued from the Supreme Court. The volume contains the decisions rendered by the Supreme Court in criminal, divorce, equity, law and probate during 1893 and 1894. The volume is published in the usual perfect style and reflects great credit on the judges, the chief clerk of the Supreme Court, and the printer, Robert Grieve.

During the period covered by the volume, the following gentlemen have sat on the bench: A. W. Judd, L. L. D., Chief Justice; R. E. Bickerton, First Associate Justice, and W. F. Frear, Second Associate Justice. William Owen Smith has been Attorney-General during the same period.

Circuit Judges are: W. A. Whitig, H. E. Cooper, J. W. Kaius, S. L. Austin and J. Hardy.

Volume IX contains numerous important and highly interesting decisions and has as appendix several decisions not appealed from and not hitherto reported; also the rules of the Circuit Courts and of the Supreme Court; the constitution of the Republic of Hawaii and the expressions of regret in memoriam of C. L. Carter and Henry N. Castle as passed by the Supreme Court and members of the bar.

BY AUTHORITY.

REGULATIONS OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH

1. From and after this date all persons are forbidden to use any water from the Nuuanu stream, or Honolulu harbor, or from bathing in said stream or harbor, from throwing anything, liquid or solid, into said stream or harbor, or permitting any liquid or drainage flowing into said stream or harbor.

2. The sale, in the District of Honolulu, of fish, shell-fish or any product of the sea is prohibited.

3. Until further orders no passengers or freight will be allowed to be conveyed from the Island of Oahu to any other island of the group.

4. No letters or mail matter shall be taken from the Island of Oahu to any other island of the group, excepting from the General Post Office in mail bags; no mail matter shall be allowed to leave the Post Office until thoroughly fumigated.

5. The manufacture of poi is prohibited in that portion of Honolulu bounded by Nuuanu street on the East, Judd street on the North, and on the West by a line drawn from the corner of Judd and Liliha streets, down Liliha street to the sea.
